AMERICAN FLAG CHINESE RIOT ON FOOD IS RUSHED

SAVED KANSAN FROM LOSS THE RUSSIAN TO FANNING ISLAND

Charged with assault on the high seas in a complaint sworn to by U. S. District Attorney Jeff McCann, Capt. William Trainor of the American schooner Melrose arrived in Honolulu from Kahului this morning accompanied by Marshal J. J. Smiddy.

Capt. Trainor was arrested in Kahului Saturday night by the marshal. Today he was released on bond in the sum of $1000, his bondsmen being John Guild and Robert E. Mist of Alexander & Baldwin. It is expected that the captain will make one more voyage from Honolulu to Seattle and return with the Melrose, of which he is part owner, and then appear for trial in federal court.

The original complaint was brought against Capt. Trainor by Nils Christensen, a seaman, who, according to Marshal Smiddy, alleges that while en route from Seattle to Honolulu he was struck and knocked down by the captain.

"According to the way Christensen tells the story, it would seem that the captain ripped the boom from the mainmast and knocked the sailor down with it," says Smiddy.

The captain's story is that Christensen, while on duty, refused to obey orders. It seems that the captain wanted him to assist in wearing ship to recover some sail lying over the lee side of the vessel, and that Christensen refused. The captain says he pushed Christensen away with his cane.

This is the first case of alleged assault on the high seas to come before the federal court in many months.

Two Chinese were seriously injured in a riot that took place on the Russian freighter Baikai, before it had been brought to a berth at Honolulu. Dr. F. E. Trotter of the federal quarantine service attended the injured seamen. It was believed that the condition of one man made it imperative he be left behind. The patient speedily rallied and was returned to the ship before it steamed for the Siberian coast yesterday afternoon, with a large cargo of war munitions and supplies destined to the battle front.

The Baikai was given a cargo at the east coast of the United States. It reached the port Saturday evening to take 450 tons of coal.

Capt. A. Sprenger reported fine weather after leaving the Pacific terminus of the Panama canal.

Officers had little to say concerning the nature of the cargo carried in the vessel. The danger flag was flown from the Baikai's masthead during its stay in port as a warning that explosives were stored beneath the hatches. The vessel has no wireless.

arrival from New York by the way of Panama, continued its voyage to Vladivostok yesterday after taking bunker coal. The vessel is said to have been loaded to its capacity with material for the Allies.

It is the present intention to give the United States army transport Thomas, from the Coast, an early despatch to Manila by the way of Guam. The troopship is due Wednesday morning. It may take coal and a small amount of general cargo.

The Matson steamer Lurline is back from Kahului, Maui. It was given sugar and about 1000 tons of molasses. The vessel will steam to San Francisco from Pier 19 at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, taking more than 40 cabin passengers and a capacity cargo.

Leaving more than 4000 tons of Japanese coal behind, the freighter Amagisan Maru has steamed to Ocean Island, taking transit cargo which included a quantity of supplies to the phosphate plant. The vessel will probably load a return cargo for delivery to Japan or China.

A few passengers are expected to be landed from the Pacific Mail liner China, due from San Francisco Friday morning. This vessel will be supplied with coal before steaming to the coast of Asia. More than 100 Asiatic steamer passengers have been booked to Japan, China and the Philippines in the China.

Captain T. J. Morris retained command of the schooner A. F. Coats that sailed to Puget Sound, taking ballast. Captain Morris abandoned the proposed search for a mass of floating jet-sam that he first believed to be ambergris. The sample which he brought to Honolulu proved by analysis to be worthless.

HARBOR NOTES

The British freighter Cycle with coal supplied at Newcastle, N. S. W., is due at Honolulu. The fuel is consigned to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation bunkers.

The barkentine M. Winkelman is reported discharging lumber and general cargo at Mahukona, Hawaii. The vessel may return to the Coast, taking a shipment of sugar.

The Inter-Island has been advised that the steamer Gerald E. Plisquel, with cargo from the east coast of the United States to the Orient, may call here for bunker coal.

Loaded with a quantity of freight for delivery to Japan, China and Siberia the British steamer Saint Panama is reported to have passed Panama canal to Honolulu. It is now due to take bunker coal.

Officers in the steamer W. G. Hall report 22,000 sacks of sugar awaiting shipment at Lihue and 7200 sacks at Grove Farm. The Hall will steam to Kauai at 5 o'clock this evening, taking lumber, coal and fertilizer.

The Russian freighter Baikai, an
